

NEUTRAL PROFILE

D. Robin Gouveia

PRACTICE AREA:

Attorney Robin Gouveia has been practicing personal injury law with both d'Oliveira & Associates and d'Oliveira & Morgan for over 27 years. She was a claims adjuster for Trust Insurance Company for 8 years prior to that. Her experience as a claims adjuster has given her valuable insight into how the insurance companies calculate personal injury settlements.

TERRITORY:

Attorney Gouveia works with clients from the East Providence, Middletown, Pawtucket, Fall River, New Bedford, Woonsocket, Attleboro, Taunton, Brockton and other areas throughout the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Attorney Gouveia graduated from Bishop Stang High School in Dartmouth, MA in 1985. She graduated from University of Massachusetts in 1989. She received her law degree from University of Massachusetts School of Law in 1997.

Attorney Gouveia is admitted to practice law in RI and MA state courts and the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. Attorney Gouveia's professional association admissions include the Rhode Island Bar Association, the Massachusetts Bar Association, and the Bristol County Bar Association.

She is an active Board of Governor for the Rhode Island Association for Justice (RIAJ). The Board of Governors is the governing body in the state of Rhode Island for members of the trial bar and consists of experienced and highly recognized Rhode Island Attorneys. They work to protect the rights of injured victims throughout the State of Rhode Island. She is also a member of the Massachusetts Academy of Trial Attorneys and the American Association for Justice, which protect the rights injured citizens in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and across the United States.