ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

As a Judge Advocate General in the U.S. Marine Corps, Attorney Connly was assigned duties as a Defense Counsel from January 1993 through August 1995. In this role, he represented Marines at General Courts-Martial, Special Courts-Martial and Administrative Discharge Boards. Attorney Connly's litigation skills caused him to be sought out to defend many complex criminal matters, including two capital murder cases.

Attorney Connly resigned from the Marine Corps as a Captain and was honorably discharged in October 1995.

Attorney Connly returned to Massachusetts and joined the firm in 1995 Boyle & Morrissey in Boston as an Associate. He concentrated his practice in the area of civil tort defense litigation. He represented numerous defendants in personal injury and wrongful death claims and tried many judge and jury trials in the District and Superior Courts.

Attorney Connly joined the Law Offices of J. Albert Johnson in May of 1998. Attorney Connly was engaged in all aspects of criminal defense & civil tort plaintiff litigation in both the state and federal courts before co-founding DOLAN CONNLY, P.C in October of 2000.
