

NEUTRAL PROFILE
Michael F. Mahoney, Esq.

Attorney Michael F. Mahoney graduated from Boston College Law School in 1996. Since opening his practice, he has argued before the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court and tried cases in Federal District Court, as well as courts throughout the state. Attorney Mahoney has obtained multi-million dollar settlements, arbitration awards and judgements in multiple complex personal injury cases and has been featured and profiled in The Boston Globe, Fox News, WBZ Radio, Lawyer's Weekly, Daily Lynn Item, ABC News, The Washington Post and New Mobility Magazine, amongst others. Additionally, Attorney Mahoney recently completed his 10th year as adjunct professor teaching litigation skills at Boston College.