

NEUTRAL PROFILE
Paul R. Kelley, Esq.

Territory: All of Massachusetts

PRACTICE AREAS:

Primary: Personal Injury, Employment Discrimination, Professional Malpractice, Products Liability, Premises Liability, Sexual Abuse, Property Damage, Insurance Coverage, Accidents Involving Children, Wrongful Death, Brain Injury, Brain Injuries, Alcohol-Related Accidents, Homeowners Liability, Chapters 93A/176D, Underinsured/Uninsured Motorist Claims. (Additional information available upon request.)

ADR TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE:

Lecturer and trainer in mediation and negotiation. Former clinical trial instructor at Boston University Law School. Professional mediation training with certification pursuant to G.L. c.233 Section 23C.

EMPLOYMENT:

Arbitrator & Mediator	2001 – Present
Neville & Kelley, Litigation Partner	1989 – 2001
Segal, Moran & Feinberg, Associate	1986 – 1989
Assistant District Attorney, Essex and Middlesex	1982 – 1986
National Association of Government Employees	1979 – 1982

EDUCATION:

Boston University School of Law, J.D.
Tufts University, B.A. cum laude

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

A 20-year trial attorney with over 150 jury trials conducted, he helps litigants mediate their claims on the basis of likely admissible evidence. He assists plaintiffs and defendants to form a realistic expectation of a potential jury award. His extensive knowledge of trial practice and mediation, combined with strength in handling emotionally difficult issues that arise during a session, leads to mutually satisfactory settlements. As an arbitrator he conducts full and fair hearings issuing just awards.