

NEUTRAL PROFILE
Robert H. Gaynor, Esq.

TERRITORY:

All of Massachusetts

PRACTICE AREAS:

Primary: Civil Litigation, General Liability, Product Liability, Professional Liability, Nursing Home Malpractice, Construction Litigation including personal injury claims and construction defect claims.

SPECIALTY AREAS:

Specialty areas have included complex construction defect litigation and bodily Injury construction claims: intellectual property claims (including defamation, trade secrets and computer fraud); employment discrimination claims; general liability claims; product liability claims; motor vehicle tort claims; property damage claims; insurance coverage actions including declaratory judgment claims; alleged bad faith, violations of G.L. c. 93 and G.L. c. 176D; mediation and arbitration of liability claims and worker's compensation claims.

EMPLOYMENT:

American Mutual Insurance Company 1977 – 1979
(In house counsel for American Mutual Insurance Company with emphasis on the defense of workers' compensation claims).

Sloane & Walsh, Senior Partner 1979 – Present

EDUCATION:

Suffolk University Law School, J.D., 1977
Tufts University, B.A. 1973

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Conducted numerous trials in Superior Court, Federal District Court and Massachusetts District Courts as well as representation in the Massachusetts Division of Industrial Accidents.