

NEUTRAL PROFILE
Stephen F. Connolly, Esq.

PRACTICE AREAS:

Civil, Premises Liability, Construction, Personal Injury, Wrongful Death, Contract Claims & Insurance Coverage.

ADR TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE:

Civil & criminal litigation attorney with thirty-three years of substantial trial experience including District and Superior Courts and the Appellate Division of the District Court for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Over one hundred jury trials completed in both Superior & District Courts, civil & criminal. Areas of case experience including defending personal injury and property damage cases for an insurance carrier and prosecution of numerous criminal cases before both jury of twelve and six. The civil cases also involved wrongful death, premises liability and contract claims.

EMPLOYMENT:

One Beacon Insurance Company, Law Office of Robert E. Noonan 1985 – 2010
(Senior Civil Litigation Attorney) Civil Litigation attorney dealing with depositions, pretrial conferences, motions, mediations, arbitrations and jury trials. Total case responsibility from filing of suit until completion including appellate work before the Appellate Division of the District Court.

Suffolk County District Attorney's Office 1977 – 1985
(Assistant District Attorney) Prosecution of criminal cases including approximately one hundred jury trials. Also prepared affidavits and applications in several wiretap cases.

EDUCATION:

Suffolk University Law School-J.D., 1977
Harvard University-B.S. Cum Laude 1972
Boston Latin School- 1968

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Massachusetts Bar, November 1977

US District Court for District of Massachusetts Bar, 1983